ABOUT MIDLAND CENTER FOR THE ARTS A cultural destination in the heart of Michigan, the Midland Center for the Arts is on a dynamic course of growth and change in preparation for celebrating its 50th anniversary in the coming years. The Center's unique business and program model creates unusual and exciting opportunities. The Center features a four-story museum of science and art, a 1500 seat proscenium theater and a separate 400 seat theater housed within an architecturally significant mid-century modern building, and also an off-site history center comprised of historical homes and museum facilities. In addition to museum programming and performing arts presenting, the Midland Symphony Orchestra, a professional regional symphony, and the Center Stage community theatre and choirs all fall under the Center's umbrella.

World-class entertainment and programming begins with sharing the stories and experiences that look like the world. At Midland Center for the Arts, we strive to create a workplace and patron experience where all people feel welcome and engaged. Our organization celebrates diversity in all of its forms while pursuing our mission as the cultural destination for the Great Lakes Bay Region. Our work reflects our community and our values as an inclusive and accessible home for art, science and history exploration. Our organization is committed to including voices of those varying in abilities, ages, ethnicities, gender identities & expressions, races, religions, sexual orientations, and socioeconomic backgrounds.
