

Meet the Midland Center Youth Choir Program Conductors

Anna Doering

Anna Doering is the director of the Tempo Youth Choir. She is also the 6th-12th Grade Choir Director and Music Director for theatre at John Glenn High School in Bay City. A Midland native, Anna sang in the Youth Honors Choir program growing up and is thrilled to now be one of the conductors. She enjoys singing with the Midland Center's Camerata and recently completed her Masters in Choral Conducting at Michigan State University.

Heather DeGroot

Heather DeGroot has taught choir, general music, and orchestra at elementary through high school levels. She loves musical theatre and has performed many roles on stage, in pit orchestras, conducting, coaching, and music directing with several organizations including Teenage Musicals, Inc. Heather is principal second violinist of the Midland Symphony Orchestra and a member since 1994. She has sung with Camerata and Harmony Diversity Choir and teaches private lessons in violin, viola and piano.