WELCOME TO A SPECTACULAR NEW SEASON OF PERFORMANCES

Welcome to a new season of entertainment at Midland Center for the Arts! I hope you will be as excited as I am about the art and artists who will be joining us in Mid-Michigan this year. I really believe we have a little something for everyone – comedies full of side-splitting humor; enthralling music; high energy Broadway shows; intimate dramas. Whatever you need to enrich your life in the coming year, I think you will find something here.

I also want to say a big thank you to you – our subscribers. We know that you take a risk with us. You commit to your tickets early, you take a chance on that show you may not be too sure about, and you support our programming. We not only offer you our sincere thanks, but also special perks, including ensuring you get the best seats, the lowest prices, and plenty of flexible exchange privileges.

Finally, I want to offer both a thanks and an invitation. Some of you are also donors to the Center and we are so appreciative of that support. We are able to connect visiting performers, local artists, exhibitions, and other education programs with over 4,000 students from around the region, only through the support of our generous donors. Many of those students are from underserved populations and our programs offer experiences they rarely have access to. So, if you are not yet a donor, I invite you to join us. If you already are a donor, please consider increasing your support of these vital opportunities. Our donors share special opportunities for gathering together, perks in our donor lounge, parking benefits, and many more opportunities. See page 15 for more details.

Thank you again for subscribing. I look forward to seeing you at the Center soon!

Direct from Broadway, MEAN GIRLS is the hilarious hit musical from an award-winning creative team, including book writer TINA FEY ("30 Rock"), composer JEFF RICHMOND ("Unbreakable Kimmy Schmidt"), lyricist NELL BENJAMIN (LEGALLY BLONDE) and director CASEY NICHOLAW (THE BOOK OF MORMON).

Cady Heron may have grown up on an African savanna, but nothing prepared her for the vicious ways of her strange new home: suburban Illinois. Soon, this naïve newbie falls prey to a trio of lionized frenemies led by the charming but ruthless Regina George. But when Cady devises a plan to end Regina's reign, she learns the hard way that you can't cross a Queen Bee without getting stung.

New York Magazine cheers, "MEAN GIRLS delivers with immense energy, a wicked sense of humor and joyful inside-jokery." USA Today says, "We'll let you in on a little secret, because we're such good friends: GET YOUR TICKETS NOW!"

Violinist Ilmar Gavilán, and pianist Aldo López-Gavilán, are virtuoso Afro-Cuban musicians who grew up as prodigies in 1970s Havana. As highlighted in an impactful PBS documentary, after being separated for decades as innocent victims of complicated U.S.-Cuba political conflicts, the two have finally been able to come together as mature musicians, fulfilling a dream to create and perform together their genre-defying music rooted in classical, Latin jazz and Afro-Cuban traditions. WINNER TONY® AWARD & PULITZER PRIZE

A provocative and gripping story of suspicion and scandal. Set in 1964, DOUBT could not be more contemporary in its examination of truth and consequences. When Sister Aloysius, a rigid Bronx school principal, accuses a progressive and engaging priest, Father Flynn, of having improper relations with a young male student, she inadvertently raises questions that force her to confront the foundation of her own moral certainty. Blunt yet subtle, manipulative yet full of empathy, DOUBT is a brilliant and beautifully balanced drama that draws power from ambiguity. In lean, potent and passionate language, John Patrick Shanley courageously leads us into the shadowy and elusive realm of human nature and ultimate truth.

“An eloquent and provocative investigation of truth and consequences. A gripping mystery, tightly written.”
